

Corn To Pop Again In Grove Theatre

Lemon Grove Review

MIL'S MUSINGS

By Richard Milbrodt

THIS CORNER IS HAPPY to announce that the San Diego Public Library Periodical section is now graced with one more paper—the REVIEW. A shocked student sadly reported to the REVIEW staff a couple of weeks ago that after spending a whole night browsing through newspapers (between research sessions of course) at that library, he was unable to find his own home town sheet.

Despite the fact that every nook and cranny was represented by a sum of 26 county publications. So now, thanks to that distraught student, everything is under control.

NEWEST RUMOR ABOUT town is that the Grove Theatre is set to reopen — soon. Might do well for all hands to support this effort. After all, a place with 18,000 people really isn't much without a movie. And it can offer something to do for children, and youths, when the call of surplus time can lead to mischief.

LOOK FOR A FIRE PLUG to appear shortly in front of the San Miguel School. Between the School authorities and the Fire Dept., we will get things done yet in the Grove.

BETCHA DIDN'T KNOW that somebody in Lemon Grove (P. O. box 1376) sells pictures of wrestlers. Will provide you with a list too, for only a self-addressed envelope. They enter a classified in a radio-teevee mag.

Talent Show Friday at M. H. Cafetorium

Monterey Heights cafetorium will be the scene Friday night for a Talent Show sponsored by the Golden Avenue P. T. A. Thirty numbers have already been scheduled by Mrs. Bert Cosby, chairman of the event. All the participants are Golden Avenue pupils and from reports received, very good for the age group in every way. There will be dancing, singing and instrumental numbers with the Lemon Grove band under Mr. Cheatham's direction, providing some extra musical enjoyment.

During intermission, cake, coffee, candy and popcorn will be on sale.

HERE ARE NEW OFFICERS OF BUSINESS WOMEN'S LEAGUE

It was a record turnout last week when the Lemon Grove Business Women's League held their annual installation of officers dinner dance at Caspar's. One hundred and sixteen persons dined, danced and enjoyed a colorful installation ceremony. The fifty-four member group, which is still growing, put the stamp of approval on the coronation theme which made it the most attractively decorated ceremony in the history of the club.

During the ceremony the group heard Judge Luther Hussey, the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Paul Lower.

Officers Named
The following officers were named as committee heads for the coming year by the Business Women's League. The officers and officers are: Mmes. Arthur Chappelle, membership; Jerry Roman and C. K. Nicholl, social; C. F. Dail and Forrest Baxter, ways and means; Bruno Leoncio, publicity; H. A. Anderson, historian; Robert Runyon, welfare; Floyd Chaffee, phone and res.; Bob Brown and Jack Sanders, beautification; Al Huebsch, civic; Wayne Johnson, control board rep.; and Alex Antonetti, Red Cross Navy Hospital council.

'He Went ThataWay, Podner' — To Git Tickets to the Show

Morgan Ames, who will soon re-open the Grove Theatre, points to the marquee showing the last feature played there. Complete remodeling, new seats and equipment is part of the over-all re-opening plan. Ames has been operating theatres across the nation all of his life.

Every Grove School to Mark Public Schools Week

The doors of all schools in the Lemon Grove District will open wide next week for the annual observance of Public Schools Week. Beginning on Monday, April 27, and running through Friday, May 1, teachers and students will welcome parents and other patrons to observe classes and special programs in the five schools.

At the junior high, open house will be held at regular class periods during the week. However, on Thursday evening, April 30, the two glee clubs of the music department, the Gold Robe Choir and the Green Robe Choir, will present their annual spring concert, under the direction of Paul Cheatham, at the Monterey Heights School. Tickets for the concert, which begins at 8:00 p. m., are now being sold by members of the glee club and will also be sold at the door that evening. Student window displays, under the supervision of Virginia Cornelius, will be seen in the business section of Lemon Grove during Public Schools Week.

Golden Avenue School will stage a formal Open House Tuesday evening, April 28, from 7:00 until 9:00. The book report contest entries will be on display in the hall at that time and prize winners in the contest will be announced.

At San Miguel, Wednesday night, April 29, will be the evening for formal Open House. Displays on books, audio-visual supplies, the cafeteria, etc., are to be featured. Each class will invite parents to visit classrooms. Continued on page 5

Irrigation District Merges With El Cajon

A merger of the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District and the El Cajon Irrigation District was approved by the La Mesa District board of directors.

The acceptance marked the first formal action toward annexation of El Cajon's lands by the La Mesa District. Three steps are necessary before El Cajon receives Colorado River water:

1—The annexation must be approved by the San Diego County Water Authority.

2—The Metropolitan Water District must concur.

3—A 2½-million-dollar bond issue must be passed by voters of El Cajon to pay for interconnection of the two districts.

Woman's Jrs. Change Meeting Time

The regular meeting on April 28th of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Jrs. will begin promptly at 7:30 instead of the usual 8 p. m. This change of time will permit the Civil Defense meeting to begin at 8 p. m.

Matters to be discussed at the club meeting include the annual picnic, delegates to be elected for the State Convention May 15 and 16 in Los Angeles, the Bazaar and the Mother's Day Tea.

NIELSEN QUILTS C of C

In a stormy, special meeting of the Grove Chamber of Commerce Roy Nielsen, president since the year's beginning, resigned Wednesday night.

Nielsen claimed he couldn't delegate assignments and get action on them.

To alert the public about cancer more than 140,000,000 pamphlets were printed and distributed by the American Cancer Society last year.

Ditchdigger Saved By Firemen

Raymond Carrasco, ditchdigger for the Dennis Construction Co., narrowly escaped death Tuesday when Lemon Grove firemen rescued him from a cave-in of a sewer line project at Palm near Citronella.

He was working alone when the 8 foot adobe walls collapsed. Fire Chief H. L. Hensley and Firemen Jim Sanchez and Charles Martin worked 42 minutes with a rescuator to revive Carrasco. The victim was taken to La Mesa Community Hospital for treatment of fractured ribs and shock.

The fire department was called to extinguish a fire in an auto at 69th and Mt. Vernon Sunday

Grossmont High School Bonds Pass Easily

Overwhelming support of the $2½ million Grossmont High School Bond issue resulted in an unofficial 5946 to 1868 vote Tuesday.

A high school will be built in El Cajon and two additional sites will be obtained for high schools for the Grossmont district.

The tax rate on the bonds will be 60¢ and Lemon Grove property will be assessed to pay for them.

School Board Aspirant and Vicar Named Judges in School Contest

Attorney Frank Armstrong and Rev. J. Phillip Bartlett, vicar of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, have been named judges in the Grove Masonic Club Essay Contest, commemorating 34th Annual Public School Week which starts April 27th. Rev. Bartlett recently retired from a successful business career to become a minister. Armstrong last week filed for Lemon Grove school trustees. Dr. S. C. Brumbaugh, also a judge in the contest was not present when the photo was taken.

New Group For Incorporation Formed

Refusal of the Lemon Grove Civic Investigating Committee Tuesday night to act upon a report of government status resulted in the formation of a new organization to attempt incorporation of Lemon Grove.

Title of the group is Lemon Grove Home Rule Association and Bob Gietzen was named chairman with Herb Haag, secretary. First meeting is set for Tuesday at the home of John Dail, 3410 Olive St.

The new group will operate independently of the CIC group which meanwhile named Lee Thompson as president.

Mrs. Decker to Relate Japanese Experience

Woman's Club of Lemon Grove is looking forward to an interesting program at the meeting Friday, Mrs. B. W. Decker will tell of her experiences with Women in Japan and the Double Quartet of Helix High School choir under the direction of Mr. Robert Rue will sing. Hostesses for the tea hour will include Mesdames A. C. Broquin, Ted Magnusson, Charles West and R. I. Seder.

Ministers Protest Rodeo Name

The Foothills Ministerial Association, representing Protestant Churches in Lemon Grove, La Presa, Spring Valley, Casa De Oro, La Mesa and Fletcher Hills, unanimously voted in a meeting held earlier this month in Lemon Grove, to clarify the status of the Lemon Grove Rodeo.

"Although the rodeo takes place in Lemon Grove, it is not an official project of the community and the proceeds do not go to the community," it was pointed out by the group.

"The Lemon Grove Rodeo is sponsored solely by St. John of the Cross Church and the proceeds go entirely to that religious body," they claimed.

The American Cancer Society is seeking $18,000,000 in its 1953 drive.

Excessive smoke and offensive odors must be guarded against. For additional information call Chief Hensley at H6-1459.

Grove Kiddies In Dance Recital

A number of Lemon Grove children will appear in a dance recital Saturday, May 2, at La Mesa Junior High School.

Susan Leamons, and Janet Norr, acrobatic; Carol Antonette, Chinese; Karen Keeton, tap; Susan Titmas, ballet; Carol Whildin, Nella Vaughn, acrobatic; and Carol Weber, hula.

New Drive-In For Lemon Grove

Toni Alvarez and Peggy Finch, both of Vista Ave. in Lemon Grove, pose prettily in foreground of the new Richie's Drive-In which will open Friday, May 1st on Broadway near Massachusetts.

The cafe will be a drive-in type, featuring sandwiches and soda fountain items. French fries, shrimp, fish, hot dogs and the like, together with Richie's root beer in frosted mugs, will be available.

Car-hops, as attractive as the two young ladies in the photo above, will assure patrons rapid and efficient service.

Owner of the drive-in is A. Polak, well known San Diego restaurateur. Opening date is Friday.

The enticing aroma of popping corn against a backdrop of blazing six-shooters will lighten the hearts of young and old in Lemon Grove again as announcement that the Grove Theatre will reopen was made this week.

The theatre, closed since the first of the year, had been run on an erratic schedule but that would be changed according to the theatre's new operator, Morgan Ames.

"First, we're going to take the remainder of the month to repaint and redecorate and bring the theatre to operating fitness," Mr. Ames said. "Brand new seats, new curtains, doors, a box-office and an all around refurbishing are in the plans."

"We're also going to maintain a seven day a week schedule," he stated and the theatre will be operated in such a manner that patrons will be assured of a lack of disturbance of any kind."

Ames has been the manager of the Orpheum Theatre in downtown San Diego for the past 6½ years and brings that wealth of experience with him. Prior to that he was general manager for the Mort H. Singer Theatres in the Midwest. Singer, now deceased, was founder of the famed Orpheum Circuit.

Business Co-Op Indicated

That the new operator knows show business was indicated by a plan he wants to put into effect. It'll be a Saturday morning kiddie's show. Business firms will be asked to offer features to draw shoppers to the area on Saturday morning. The theatre will arrange to care for the kiddies. The REVIEW has already agreed to publicize such an event should plans jell, with all the space necessary to make the event successful.

The theatre was operated until closing by John Van Gilse, well known fishing enthusiast. The property owned by Roy Miller of San Diego, was put on the market several weeks after the closing. Negotiations have been carried on by a score of individuals until Monday when the interested parties signed the contract that would allow the theatre to re-open.

Terms of the contract were not revealed. Work on the property is underway currently.

Chief'll Get Non-Permit Burners

If you're gonna burn it you'd better get a permit.

That is a warning being handed out by Channing Mason, chairman of the Grove Fire District board as the dry season closed in on the area.

Residents are advised to get in touch with the fire department for burning permits which are free.

Burning should be done between 6:00 a. m. and 9:00 a. m. and between 6:00 p. m. and 9:00 p. m.

Excessive smoke and offensive odors must be guarded against. For additional information call Chief Hensley at H6-1459.

Recently a small California manufacturing concern, Pioneers, Inc. of Oakland, won a five-year fight with the U. S. Bureau of Standards.

The Bureau had ruled repeatedly that the firm's product, a battery additive, was of no value, and had persuaded the Post Office Department to issue a fraud order against the firm's use of the mails. The Senate Small Business Committee, investigating the matter, found that the Bureau had never properly tested the product. Independent tests conducted by two universities demonstrated that the battery additive was everything its manufacturer claimed.
As a result, the fraud order has been rescinded and the Director of the Bureau of Standards has been fired by Secretary of Commerce Weeks.

A curious sidelight on this story was the manner in which it was handled by New Deal oracles who have been painting the new Administration in Washington as a Big Deal by Big Business to trample the common people. One nationally syndicated writer who devoted an entire column to the story featured it as proof that the Federal Government no longer is interested in protecting the people against fraud. The only fact he omitted from his account was the fact that the Oakland firm's claims for its product had been vindicated by independent investigation!

It's good to know that steps are being taken to correct the fraudulent standards apparently used in the past in testing products. If only something could be done about standards in interpreting news!

Bath House Built at La Jolla Cove ... (1906)

The dirt road leading to the La Jolla Cove was entirely adequate in the early 1900's. Carriages frequently passed along the road, there were but few automobiles. Most San Diegans who wished to visit La Jolla did so by way of the small steam railroad with the big name: the San Diego-Pacific Beach-La Jolla Railroad.

As visitors continued to arrive in increasing numbers, a bathhouse in La Jolla seemed a profitable venture. This 1906 photograph, from the historical collection of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company, shows the third bath house built in this location. The building contained a swimming pool, dressing rooms, restaurant, and auditorium.

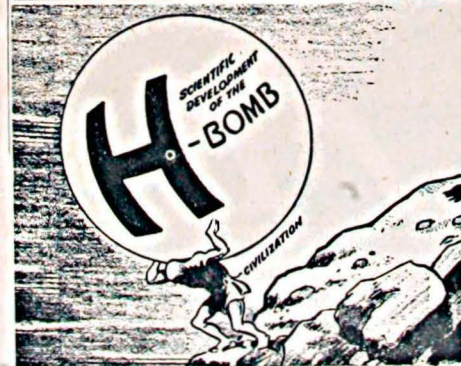

In 1922 the bath house was torn down, and the land was presented by E. W. Scripps to the city of La Jolla for a permanent park. Landscaping and careful planning have turned this spot into one of the southland's most scenic attractions, and the Cove has gained world-wide fame for La Jolla.

Relatives Visit After 20 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hicks, 1757 Colfax, Monterey Heights, are very busy this week filling in the missing links of the past 20 years with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Drinkard who arrived the first of this week from Kansas City, Mo.

It was only two years ago that Mrs. Hicks happily located her long lost family. It was all due to her husband's activities as a stamp collector.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Drinkard will be equally as happy to make the acquaintance of the two Hicks youngsters.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor,
Lemon Grove Review:
Dear Mr. Goodwin:

Here is a letter from a Lemon Grove boy on Okinawa.

I wish you would publish at least part of it so that Grove residents may know of the plight of these unfortunate people of Airaku-en.

—O—
29th Infantry Regiment, Okinawa

Dear Rev. Mulkey:
I am now serving with the 29th Infantry Regiment on Okinawa. We are less than 450 miles from Red China. If things toughen up, we are going to need the friendship of these people.

Recently, our regiment adopted a village of 900 on Okinawa. We adopted these people because they need our help right now. You see, all 900, men, women and children, have leprosy. These sick people live in grass thatched shacks. Several times a year typhoons blow some of these "homes" away.

They once started a small hospital at the leper colony at Airaku-en (The Garden of Love and Comfort) but ran out of money. There are not enough

Which Got The Wonder Drug?

Each of these calves, owned by Hiram Hoag of Johnson, Vermont, is four months old. The difference is that the bigger, thriftier one was fed an aureomycin supplement, a product of Lederle Laboratories Division of American Cyanamid Company, from the day it was born until it was three months old; the other had no aureomycin. With Mr. Hoag is Ian Fritchard, right, of the University of Vermont which supplied the aureomycin used in a statewide series of such feeding experiments by Vermont farmers.

Famed Lady Attorney To Have Local Pulpit Sunday

One of California's outstanding women attorneys will take over the pulpit at the First Congregational Church Sunday according to Rev. Dan Apra.

The woman, Miss Elsie M. Farris, of Long Beach, in addition to achieving statewide legal fame, has become one of the nation's Christian leaders, he said.

Miss Farris recently completed her second round the world tour in the interest of Christianity at her own expense. Active in world wide mission work she is supporting twelve students in the mission field at her own personal expense.

A close student of the South African political and religious problem, she recently returned from that troubled area and will discuss her findings at the Sunday meeting.

She is on the Board of National Council of Churches and of the General Council of Congregational Churches of America. She is also the Moderator of the Los Angeles Congregational Association.

The Worship Service will be conducted by the women of the church in recognition of Women's Sunday.

Since Miss Farris' address will be non-denominational, members of other churches may attend the 8 a. m. Service and still attend their own church, Rev. Apra stated.

May Fellowship Meeting Announced

The La Mesa Council of Church Women will hold its annual May Fellowship meeting May 1st, in Vista La Mesa Christian Church, at 1:15 p. m.

An inspirational program is planned by Mrs. Lawhead, of the host church. Guest speaker is Mrs. John Paul Stone, San Diego Area Chairman of United Church Women. Her topic will be "Citizenship—Our Christian Concern."

An informal tea hour will follow. Also nursery care will be provided.

Sue Ann McDonald Is 'Girl of the Week'

The student council of the Lemon Grove Intermediate School selected Sue Ann McDonald, 7-2 class, as "girl of the week" and David Newell, 8-1 class, as "boy of the week" from numerous candidates submitted from the various homerooms.

These two honored students, selected for outstanding scholarship and citizenship, will enjoy special privileges at the school during the next two weeks.

The council is also featuring a bulletin board at the Snack Bar at the junior high on which daily appear the names of those students selected by a committee as the neatest groomed boys and girls.

Last Friday evening the council sponsored a dance for the seventh and eighth graders of the student body.

The dance, the Lemon Grove Women's Clubhouse, was gayly decorated with colorful clowns and animals in keeping with the themes of the affair, the Circus Swing. Decorations were done by the 8-5 class. Mrs. Virginia Cornelius, student body advisor, was in charge of the evening's activities which approximately 200 boys and girls attended.

Other sponsors included Mrs. W. S. Glazebrook, Evelyn Whalen, Peg Darroch, Harry Butler, Tom Brown, Ben I. Schei, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mason.

During intermission a short program featured a trombone solo by Bill Cabral; songs by the 8 plus 1 Music makers with Dean Brower, Martin Haase, Jim White, Henry Cook, Gordon Hoard, Jim Glazebrook, LeRoy Kerl, Richard Singer, and Allen Rovang at the piano; and the Lemonettes, a girl chorus with Beverly Svalstad, Dale Finch, Margaret Waymire, Kathy Boyd, Peggy Moore, Mary Ann Atkins, Georgine Grove, Louise Robinson, Donna Berger, and Mildred Yamashita accompanist.

Golden Avenue School News

The afternoon classes of the Golden Avenue School took their annual trip to the San Diego Zoo on Tuesday, April 14. In addition to their teachers, Mmes. Faye Stowers and Elda F. Bengston, the children were accompanied by the following mothers: Mmes. Dean Sullivan, Sr., Norma Hertrick, Carl Stewart, Robert Shaw, Howard Lane, and Dale Hamilton.

This trip is looked forward to each year by the first grade children because of its connection with their social studies unit on the zoo. The children study the life habits of various animals with great enthusiasm, and bring to school pictures for scrapbooks. They also draw their own pictures and write stories about the animals they study.

At the zoo they tour the grounds in a bus and are under the direction of Mrs. Ketchum, who tells them many interesting facts about the full-grown and baby animals there.

Mrs. Dorothy Geissler and Mrs. Florence Stocking, teachers at Monterey Heights School, brought a group of youngsters to Golden School last Thursday afternoon to demonstrate a flag ceremony which they've developed at their school. Members of Mrs. Stocking's CLASS HAVE MADE United States flags of many eras. The third graders under Mrs. Geissler acted as a color guard. The ceremony was an inspiring one and the youngsters' performance was superb.

David Barnes of the Guidance Department of the San Diego County Schools spoke to a group of Lemon Grove teachers Tuesday afternoon on the Prescott Child Study movement. These groups have been formed in other districts during the past few years; a very valuable group under the leadership of Emma Tait has been at work in Lemon Grove during the past three school terms. Other teachers here have shown an interest in starting a similar group.

last week to meet for luncheon at Valle's. The luncheon, scheduled between morning and afternoon sessions of the institute activities, was attended by almost every Golden Avenue School teacher, and a few others from schools in the district here also joined the group.

Dr. Holmes on Grove School Panel

Adolescent psychology was the subject for discussion last Thursday evening when the Lemon Grove School P. T. A. met for its April meeting at the San Miguel auditorium. Dr. Darrell Holmes, a professor from San Diego State College, along with members of the staff and senior class, led a panel discussion of the problems that face both the intermediate student and his parents. Following the panel presentation, questions and discussion were welcomed from the audience.

During the brief business meeting that preceded the program, John Cornelius of Grossmont District spoke to the audience on the school bond election. Mrs. Virgil Danielson was program chairman for the evening. Refreshments were served to the group by Room Representatives of the 7-1 and 7-5 classes, with Mrs. R. C. Taylor, chairman. The room count award was won by Ben Seiler's 7-5 class.

The next meeting of the association will be held on May 21, at which time new officers will be installed.

Funds given the American Cancer Society's 1953 crusade will finance more than $4,500,000 worth of cancer research next year.

"Treganza Tribe"

By Robert Turnbull
1st in a series of 4
on the Treganzas

Do you remember the first time you took a trip across the sage, plains of the midwest in a covered wagon? Probably not; but here is a story of a lady that did. A story of a man and a woman by the name of Eduardo and Josephine Treganza! I know to the most of you, that those names will mean nothing, but if you'll bear with me, I know that by the time you finish these articles, you'll not only know, but envy the four generations of this remarkable family. Yes, these are all my relatives, but nevertheless, they were the ones who contributed to Lemon Grove and mankind tremendous. But I'll let you decide your own opinion.

Josephine Adeline Treganza: Josephine Treganza was born in LeClair, Iowa, on December 30, 1854. Josephine crossed the plains to Boulder, Colorado, in a covered wagon with her parents and 2 brothers, and two sisters, in 1889. Then in the year of 1911 she moved to settle in Mission Valley while the rest of her family scattered to the four winds of California. Mrs. Treganza then moved to Lemon Grove in 1912 and was one of the very earliest residents here. Her brother, Roderick Owen, became one of the first Elders of the Seventh Day Adventist Church in the Grove, and then, shortly, the entire family was converted. Her to me concerning the Treganzas, family played a noteworthy part in the development of sections of California. Josie lived in the rest of her life in Lemon Grove (then, Lemongrove) for 36 years where she died one afternoon, of a prolonged illness, on July 28, 1948 at the age of 83 1/2. But she did outlive most of her relatives except for a few nephews and nieces, and a daughter-in-law (Antwonet Tredo and Josephine Treganza! I ganza) 5 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

Eduardo Owen Treganza: Mr. Treganza was born in 1839 in Wisconsin. He was, in his lifetime, such things as an Ornithologist, Botanist, and a Horticulturist. The house, that I presently live in, was built by Eduardo in 1911. And while in the Grove he was the Horticulturist for many of the early lemon orchards that were planted in the Grove from which this community got its name. The most noted thing about this man was a discovery. Not of a gold-streak, uranium, or 5c cigars, but of a bird. But to some people this discovery meant so much to them that they decided to name it, the "Treganza Blue Heron."

Eduardo, and his son Alberto, took many field trips together, both in Utah and California from which developed many publications of the bird-life of these two states. Mr. Treganza died in Lemon Grove in 1930. (Next week: Mr. Alberto Treganza, world noted architect). This ends article No. 1. If any one has anything to contribute to me concerning the Treganzas, or wishes me to write an article on them if they are, pardon the expression, old-timers to this metropolis, or if you have done things around Lemon Grove, then contact me via a phone or mail. Call H6-6182, if no answer, H9-3448, or 3251 Kempf St. Thank you.

How to make good telephone service even better...

You'll spread the news faster if you call by number When you're making out-of-town calls you'll find that your calls go through faster—twice as fast—if you give the operator the telephone number you want rather than just the name and address. That way, you see, you won't have to wait while she calls "Information" to get the number you're calling. So why not keep a list of out-of-town numbers handy—it's surprising how much time you'll save.

now you can take calls anywhere in the house ... with handy extension telephones.

No more missing important calls, simply because you were in a distant part of the house and couldn't get to the phone in time. You can enjoy extension telephones now—for just a few pennies a day.

The CSF presented to the student body at Helix a much ap- preciated note-rack. It will not only serve as a note-rack but also as an outgoing and incom- ing mail box. For those of you who would like to send mail from school, there will be a sepa- rate mailbox on the side of the note-rack in which you can drop your "crazy" letters. If any of you would like to drop a note or letter to a member of the ASB office there will also be a box for that. Billy Rhodes' father, a car- penter, volunteered to make the note-rack for the CSF. Billy is a member of the CSF. And it was kind of the Calif. Scholarship Federation times it out and earn the greenbacks to buy the materials to build this 7 ft. high note-rack. Billy's dad donated his spare time to the making of this item, and then the Helix High Art Dept., finished it by painting on gigantic letters. The note-rack can currently be seen on the marble wall across from the library. Again Helix beats Grossmont, score: Bigger note-rack to a punky one for them. There is only a small one, while ours is three times as big, twice as good-looking, and newer.

My congratulations to a one Miss Eleanor Freeman, Helix Senior. Reason: By being in this summer's cast which will be the cast for the "Starlight Opera". She took advantage of the won- derful opportunity of singing in that cast, and much to Eleanor's surprise, she won a part. Even though it means a lot of hard work with seven nights a week rehearsals, Eleanor enjoys it very much and hopes to keep up re- hearsals so she can continue through summer vacation. The only slight objection the father of her household says, "If my daughter keeps up such late night rehearsals, I'll have to convert the front seat to a bed and sack-out while she's singing."

On your mark! Get set! GO! And they're off Ladies and Gen- tlemen, and Marilyn Sharp takes the lead; can she hold it, yes she does; and she wins. Prize: a pin. Confused? Well I'm just talking about some of our Helix Gals who are playing shorthand this year. They get set then write like "mad" for a cer- tain period of time, then when the bell rings, they stop and see how many words a minute they "shorthand" out. Some of them do 60, then the next goal is 80, then 100. It looks like some of them will make it by the way they're going at it.

Open House At St. John's

St. John of the Cross School will hold open house for the parents of the students in atten- dance, on Thursday, April 30, at 8 p. m. The Parents are invited to visit the classrooms of their children and discuss the progress they have made during the year so that their summer activities may proceed along a plane similar to their achieve- ments of the school year.

The Parents Guild will serve refreshments for the visiting parents. Mrs. James Murphy, Chairman of Room Mothers, is in charge of the preparation of refreshments.

Sister M. Rosaria, Principal of the school urges the parents to visit with the teachers of their children and share in the pro- gress the pupils have made.

M. H. P. T. A. Attracts 130

The Monterey Heights P. T. A. Meeting held April 9, was at- tended by about 130 people. Mr. Edwin Pumala, executive direc- tor of the City-County Camp Commission, showed a beautiful color and sound film on life in the school camp at Cuyamaca and gave a very interesting speech in regards to it. Mr. Joseph Finkleman was chairman of the program. Color Guard was presented by Troop No. 334 and Mrs. Florence Stocking gave the Inspiration. After a short Busi- ness Meeting, refreshments were served by the Fourth Grade Mothers, who were Hostesses for the evening.

Juniors to Offer Defense Program

All residents of Lemon Grove who are interested in the current Civil Defense program are in- vited to attend a meeting Tuesday night, 8 p. m., in the Lemon Grove Woman's Club house, 2510 Main Street. The Army Air Corp is sending two speakers, mem- bers of the Army, from Santa Ana. These men will answer questions about Civil Defense and the Ground Observer Corp. Applications for membership in the Ground Observer Corp will be taken. The nearest post to Lemon Grove is in Encanto. After the question and answer pe- riod a short movie will be shown and coffee will be served by the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Jrs.

Troop 171 Set For Camp-Out

Another 2nd class scout, Joe Klepper, has made the grade. This week 3 to 5 boys will complete their tenderfoot achievements—as required for the all night Trinity Church camp-out Saturday. Scouts who have a rating of tenderfoot or better and have registered for the overnight camp out must be at the church at 9:30 with all camping gear plus food. The trip will be to Fisherman Camp on Boulder Creek.

Final Reconciliation for "Elizabeth"

"SWEETS TO THE SWEET" as Bud Coffin in the role of the reconciling husband, Ralph Cherry, offers the usual flowers and candy to wife Elizabeth, played by Katharine Williams, in the domestic comedy "Ring Around Elizabeth," which the Heartland Players of Lemon Grove are staging for the last time Saturday in the Helix High School little theater. The trick works and the stage couple finally find that they can live happily ever after.

TEENER...

Richard Conde

This week's pretty double bubble is Pat Weber who lives at 4156 Charles St. in Vista La Mesa. Pat is 5'3" and weighs 115 lbs. has blonde hair and blue-gray eyes. Pat was born in Windsor, Colorado on the 3rd of January, 1937 and came to Vista La Mesa with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weber, nine years ago. Mr. Weber is a chemist employed at the Kelco Co. in San Diego.

Pat has attended John Adams school, Lemon Grove, Grossmont, and Helix. Speaking of Helix, Pat is one of our most loyal Highlanders she belongs to the Triettes, Hi Debbies, Lt. of the Pom Pom Corps and recently received a letter and a stripe for a 2 year charter membership in the Helix Hi Steppers. She is also recording secretary of the San Diego Council for Christian Churches.

As her favorite food she puts that great combination of tacos and malted milks high on her list.

Swimming, dancing, sports in general cooking, listening to records, especially Lawrence Welk's, Doris Day's and Guy Mitchell's, popular and semi-classical music also rates high. Pat graduates in '54 and is majoring in commercial business. She plans to attend State College, though her highest ambition is to be a good secretary and someday get married...

JULIAN RECOVERS FROM MINING BOOM.... 1892

From the Historical Collection of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company

This 1892 view of Julian, from the historical collection of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company, looks like a "back east" country town of a half-century ago. The pastoral quality of the scene was not entirely in keeping with Julian activities, however. In 1893, when gold was discovered at Julian, the word spread quickly, and within three months the place had become a roaring mining camp. Only a year later, it was second in size only to San Diego as the largest city in the County. In an election held to decide whether Julian or San Diego should become the County seat, it is reported that Julian lost by only three votes.

The first years of the gold rush were prosperous, and more than $13,000,000 in gold was taken from the area. Then, as the gold supply dwindled, underground springs became a constant hazard to mining operations, finally increasing production costs to the point of no return. By the turn of the century, mining had come to a virtual halt.

Today, Julian is a very thriving agricultural center, famed for its fine apples and pears. Many San Diegans have summer homes in the area, and in winter it is a favorite spot for those interested in winter sports.

Furniture Fashions

Labor-saving and dual-purpose features receive greater emphasis than ever before in today's furniture fashions. As you transplant spring into your own home ask to see these special furniture features.

The grouping shown above provides maximum comfort for family living or for guests, and for short or long-legged persons.

Two love seats have been combined to form an extra long sofa. Love seats are of all foam rubber and spring construction, seat, back, and arms.

The coffee table, nicknamed "The Rat-Trap Table," has six inset stain-resistant Vitrolite panels and a lower shelf, which provides storage for magazines and three cushions. Cushions serve dual-purpose, as floor seating units, or on top of table for comfortable occasional seating. Vitrolite panels come in either red, white, black or beige.

Full-up occasional chair has adjustable sliding seat, which gives seating depths from 19 to 21 inches.

Lamp table has cork surface with exposed wood in either light or dark "melba" finish.

These furniture items, as well as many others, were designed to cut down on the homemakers daily chores.

Asters Beautify Garden and Home

For a floral bonanza that is like getting 1,000% interest on your money, set out some aster plants now. These old time favorites, the Bedding Plant Advisory Board points out, bloom so bountifully in Lemon Grove they are well worth a little special attention to secure good results.

To reduce aster troubles to a minimum, choose a sunny garden plot where there have been no asters, tomatoes or strawberries grown for the past two years. As a further precaution, fumigate the soil or sterilize it with kettles of hot boiling water, to destroy any spores of verticillium wilt and aster yellows. Spray the plants regularly with a combination contact and stomach poison insecticide. These basic steps will open the way to full enjoyment of your aster bed.

Asters are grand for bedding, and just as useful for cut flowers. They are one of the top flowers grown commercially for cutting. Some of the little known varieties are: Sunshine, a large showy single; Chinese Rainbow, a long-lasting cutting variety that has bright single blossoms of small size; Pompon, a very small button-flowered variety with excellent cutting qualities. Good companion plants for an aster bed are hollyhocks or delphinium for the background and the tall ageratum Blue Perfection, tall phlox or Tom Thumb zinnia for a high edging. For a low border try lobelia, ageratum or dwarf begonia. But be sure to leave the robust asters ample room to grow and prosper.
